Strengthening Industry Capabilities Through WSG Security Masterclass

ACSA recently participated in the Security Masterclass organised by Workforce Singapore (WSG), titled "Transforming Security – Best Practices, Consultancy, Technology and Operations." This masterclass aimed to equip security agency leaders with insights on industry best practices, emerging technologies, and future security operations trends. ACSA representatives gained valuable perspectives from industry experts, and key takeaways will be shared with members to benefit the wider security community.

Reminder: Free Comprehensive Health Screening by NTU LKC School of Medicine

Members are reminded of the free "Health for Life in Singapore (HELIOS)" health screening by Nanyang Technological University Lee Kong Chian School of Medicine. Open to Malays and Indians aged 21–84, the programme includes comprehensive tests such as blood tests, ECG, bone density and lung function checks. The screening takes about 5 hours, and participants receive a health report and $125 PayNow token upon completion.

Review of Security Industry Digital Plan Underway

The Joint Operations Group of the Security Policy Directorate has initiated a review of the Security Industry Digital Plan and related initiatives that support the adoption of advanced technologies in the security sector. The objective is to ensure that future programmes and technology adoption efforts remain practical, relevant, and aligned with the evolving needs of the security industry.

ACSA representative participated in the engagement session to share industry perspectives and operational insights, contributing to the ongoing review process and ensuring that the views of security agencies are represented.

ACSA will continue to keep members informed and updated on developments arising from this engagement and any future initiatives that may benefit the industry.

ACSA MEMBERS' NIGHT 6 FEB 2026

Members and guests enjoyed a memorable evening at the ACSA Members' Night held on 6 February 2026 at SPOM, Mount Emily Road. The event brought together industry friends and colleagues for a relaxed and lively gathering filled with great company, delicious food, refreshing drinks, and plenty of laughter.

The evening featured engaging games and exciting prize segments that added to the festive atmosphere. Attendees had the opportunity to reconnect with familiar faces, make new connections, and celebrate the strong camaraderie within the security industry.

ACSA would also like to express our sincere appreciation to the generous sponsors who contributed prizes for the evening. Their support helped create additional excitement and enjoyment for everyone present.

The smiles, energy, and participation from members truly made the night a success. We look forward to organising more opportunities for members to come together and strengthen our professional community.
